INTRODUCTION

These records cannot be absolutely correct. Some tombstones are broken, other graves are without markers with no surviving records. There may be other graveyards we did not locate. We hereby pay tribute to the colonists who helped to establish and maintain our American ways of living, whether they have monuments or are buried in nameless graves, they live on in our efforts to preserve the principles they lived for. These records are submitted in memory of all American privileges and with a hope that they will be helpful to this and future generations.

Many thanks to Mrs. William B. Wingo, Mr. J. Douglas Kidwell, and Mr. John Trafton Bonney. Without their help and encouragement this publication could not have been accomplished.

PREFACE

Laurie Boush Green and Virginia Bonney West, compilers of this volume, are descendents of early prominent families of this area. Their interest and perseverance in making these records available for present and future generations might therefore be expected.

There are still many well kept Family Graveyards in the city, however others were sadly neglected when the land passed out of the family.

Early graves were often marked by wooden slabs which deteriorated. Brick vaults also crumbled. Fortunately, stone and marble slabs were more durable.

During the last fifteen years Laurie Green and Virginia West have spent many hours checking fields and woods for these Family Graveyards. They prudently carried hoes for protection against snakes. Brambles often impeded progress. Fortunately, they could copy, without hazard, tombstone inscriptions in Church Cemeteries.

Princess Anne County Records are well documented but Vital Statistics were not recorded until the mid-19th Century. Dates derived from the Tombstone Inscriptions will in a large part supplant those non-recorded statistics.

LYNNHAVEN PARISH CHURCH
OLD DONATION EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Old Donation Church, Mother Church of Lynnhaven Parish, was established in 1640. A Parish Church at Lynnhaven was erected on Adam Thoroughgood's land known as Church Point on the west side of Lynnhaven River, a mile from Chesapeake Bay. As a result of a passage cut from the Lynnhaven River to Chesapeake Bay by fishermen, water rose around the point which made it necessary to move the church. A mound of old brick was still visible in 1850, so it probably was a brick church, one of the earliest of its type in Virginia. The churchyard gradually washed away. Some years ago, it was reported that at low tide tombstones were visible jutting out of the water.

St. Paul's Church, Norfolk gave some of the furnishings of the Church. The Hoggard family gave the Altar brasses. The basin of the font was taken from the waters of the Lynnhaven River at Church Point, and is from the original Church. The communion silver is very beautiful. Maximilian Boush, who was Church Warden, gave the paten in 1711, and it bears his coat of arms. The chalice of gold and silver alloy was given by Queen Anne in 1712. In 1716 Queen Anne also gave the large two quart flagon. The Queen Anne silver is used on special occasions such as Christmas and Easter.

EASTERN SHORE CHAPEL

Eastern Shore Chapel derived its name from the vestry who divided the Eastern Shore of the Lynnhaven River into two precincts, the upper and lower. The north precinct was referred to as the Lower Eastern Shore Precinct and the southern precinct as Upper Eastern Shore Precinct. Eastern Shore Chapel was referred to as the Lower Chapel and Pungo Chapel as the Upper Chapel.

The site of the First Eastern Shore Chapel was located on the North Branch of Wolf's Snare Creek. This site was documented by George Mason, author of Colonial Vestry Book of Lynnhaven Parish, Princess Anne County 1723-1786. The first chapel stood where First Colonial Baptist Church now stands.

The second chapel erected by 1730 was situated on a part of Salisbury Plains Plantation owned by the Cornick Family. The second Chapel was approximately two miles south of the site of the first chapel. The second chapel evidently grew and at a meeting of the vestry of the Parish in 1743 resolved by a majority vote to erect a new Chapel. The contract for the third Chapel was let on Oct. 1, 1753 and completed in March 1755. The third Chapel grew and prospered for twenty or more years.

The Parish did not have a regular minister from the outbreak of the Revolution until 1785 as a result of the change-over from the supervision of the Church of England to the New Protestant Episcopal Church.

Due to the expansion of the Naval Air Station Oceana, it was announced in March 1951 that the site of the Chapel would be moved. The new site was located on the north side of Laskin Road. The tract contained nine acres on Wolf Snare Lake, a gift from Mr. Henry C. Smithers and his daughter, Helen Smithers Eager (Mrs. Howard Eager).

The last service held in the Third Eastern Shore Chapel was conducted Sunday, January 27, 1952 by the Rt. Rev. William A. Brown, retired Bishop of the Diocese of Southern Virginia.

While the Fourth Chapel was being built, services were held in the Chapel of the Sky, a Quonset Hut on the Naval Air Station at Oceana. The first service was held in the new Chapel April 18, 1954.

Vandalism became a problem in the years following the relocation of the cemetery. In 1979 an appeal was made by a small group of interested parishioners who had loved ones interred in Eastern Shore Chapel Cemetery. This was a tremendous task. Some families had moved to other areas of the country and in many cases, no family existed. Contributions were generously made and an anchor fence was erected. This fence affords a sense of security to persons visiting the cemetery alone and for the protection of stones erected in memory of loved ones.

There are only a few members of Eastern Shore Chapel whose ancestry extends to the 1723-1786 period of Lynnhaven Parish. Below is an excerpt of ministers, church wardens, vestrymen, Presidents of Vestry, and Sheriffs of Princess Anne taken from The Colonial Vestry Book of Lynnhaven Parish, Princess Anne County, Virginia 1723-1786, transcribed and edited by George Carrington Mason.

BLACKWATER BAPTIST CHURCH

The Blackwater Baptist Church, said to be an offshoot of the Pungo Baptist Church, was constituted in 1774.

The first reference in the Princess Anne County Records to the Blackwater Church was in November 1787. Captain John Woodard made a gift of a parcel of land to the Blackwater Baptist Community. The given boundaries were vague but its land was described as beginning at a sweet gum standing on the edge of a branch.

The land was to revert to Captain Woodard or his heirs when it ceased being used for a church - this reversion did not take place.

Over fifty years later, in 1846, Henry R. Whitehurst sold about 4½ acres for a Baptist Meeting House to the Trustees of the church. It was part of the land on which Mr. Whitehurst resided, that he had earlier purchased from Mr. James E. Bell. The land was to begin at a cedar post on the edge of the road leading from Blackwater Bridge to the Mill Dam Bridge.

The present church was probably built shortly after the purchase of this land.

Mr. George Carrington Mason, Historiographer, in "Colonial Churches of Tidewater Virginia", stated that since there were no chapels in Knotts Island and Blackwater, "Reading - places were established, probably in private homes, where the clerk of the Pungo Chapel read the service of the church." This was clearly evidenced by an order of the Vestry dated 7th July 1725.

LONDON BRIDGE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Eastern Shore Baptist Church located in London Bridge, Virginia was built in 1784 from funds provided by the Pungo Baptist Church now known as Oak Grove Baptist Church. In 1946 the Eastern Shore Baptist Church was burned. A new church was dedicated October 10, 1948 and at that time the name was changed to London Bridge Baptist Church.

In 1892 a space of 30 ft. square was cleared on the church property for use as a cemetery. Burial lots sold at 50 cents a running foot for cleared spaces and 40 cents a running foot for outside spaces.

CHARITY METHODIST CHURCH

The Methodists began a Society in the Back Bay area as early as 1789 according to records of the Conference Historical Society. William Dawley, a local preacher, started Charity Chapel in the 1790s which was later renamed Charity Methodist Church. This Chapel was in existence prior to Nimmo's Methodist Church which was established in 1791. The Methodist influence increased in the Tidewater area, but the Angelican Church declined after the Revolution.

NIMMO METHODIST CHURCH

According to a note appended to a survey of records made by the Conference Historical Society, Nimmo Church was established in 1791.

For a consideration of five shillings, Anne Nimmo, by a deed dated March 20, 1779, conveyed to the Society of members of the Methodist Episcopal Church one acre of land in the fork of the roads leading from Sandbridge to Doudge's Bridge.

Princess Anne County came under control of the Federalists in the early part of the War Between the States. Nimmo Church was then used for housing Federal troops, and as a Federal hospital. During this conflict the building remained intact.

The baptismal font was given in 1927 by Miss Evelyn Nimmo in memory of her mother and father. Mrs. Elizabeth Nimmo Atwood is the only remaining member of the Nimmo family who still is a member of Nimmo Church.

Under varied economic and social conditions Nimmo Church has stood, for almost two centuries, in the fork of the road to minister to the spiritual and social life of the community.

EMMANUEL EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Emmanuel Episcopal Church was built in 1843 at Kempsville after the burning of Old Donation Church. The lay people were descended from the early settlers who loved the church. Among the early parishioners of Emmanuel Church were the following families: Walke, Seldon, Baxter, Hoggard, Ingram, Garrison, Herbert, Woodhouse, Whitehurst, Carroway, Petty, Scott and Foster.

Families who had lived near Old Donation had moved away. The Parish Church was in ruins and the roads were impassable. Rev. John G. Hull came to the parish. He gathered the Episcopal families together who were living in the Kempsville Area. Kempsville was the center of population in the western part of the Parish thus it was determined it would be a good place for a church.

David Walke of Fairfield gave a lot in the center of Kempsville for the church. Funds were raised and Emmanuel Church was the first church to be built in Lynnhaven Parish under the Protestant Episcopal Church. It was completed in 1843.

The same minister and vestry served Emmanuel Church and Eastern Shore Chapel. There is very little information on the church during the first thirty years. The church had no rector of the Parish during the War between the States. The Hoggard Family kept the services going until 1873 when Rev. McDonnough came to the Parish. Mr. Savage was minister at Emmanuel 1881-1891. Mr. Savage returned to the area in 1894 and at that time there was a division of the Parish and East Lynnhaven Parish formed in 1895 with Eastern Shore Chapel as the Mother Church. After this Emmanuel Church had its own rector. The One Hundreth Anniversary of Emmanuel Church was held in 1943. A tragic fire of unknown origin destroyed the church, but it was rebuilt in 1947.

KEMPSVILLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Constituted in 1814

The first Kempsville Baptist Church was organized by fourteen people, former members of London Bridge Baptist Church approximately thirty years after the area was incorporated into a town. The first meeting of the church was at Moseley's Meetinghouse. The group was accepted into the Virginia Portsmouth Baptist Association. However, the church was constituted in 1814 but they did not have their own church until 1826.

The first church was established in the Old Kempsville Courthouse which had been abandoned in 1824 when the county court moved to Princess Anne. The courthouse was built in the 1780's on Overland Road, directly behind Pleasant Hall on Princess Anne Road. Membership grew to 141 members by 1855. A cemetery was established north of the courthouse.

Federal troops took over the church building during the Civil War. Church services were then held in the local schoolhouse.

After the war rebuilding was a painful experience. Funds were short and church discipline consumed a great deal of time. By 1890 tranquility returned to the church. Parishioners organized a strawberry festival to raise money for the church.

A new church was built in 1911 near the site of the old courthouse. Kempsville Baptist was served by a circuit-riding minister until World War I. The growth of the church has kept pace with the fast growing community. In 1958 a sanctuary with a seating capacity of 600 was dedicated. Five years later, the lovely old wooden church was destroyed by fire. The new church was expanded in 1973.

HENRY ROBERT WOODHOUSE GRAVEYARD

Henry Robert Woodhouse is interred with his family in the Old Comfort graveyard. He inherited the property from his father, and is descended directly from Captain Henry Woodhouse, Royal Governor of Bermuda 1623-1626-7.

This graveyard is protected by deed found in Deed Book 61, page 623 in the Record Room of Princess Anne County Courthouse.

BROAD BAY FARM

One of the earliest patents in Princess Anne County, then Elizabeth City Shire, was a patent of 550 acres granted by Royal Governor West to Thomas Allen in 1636. Allen presumably built a small, one room brick house with a loft. This house survives as a connecting wing of the larger Georgian structure and is one of the oldest houses in America.

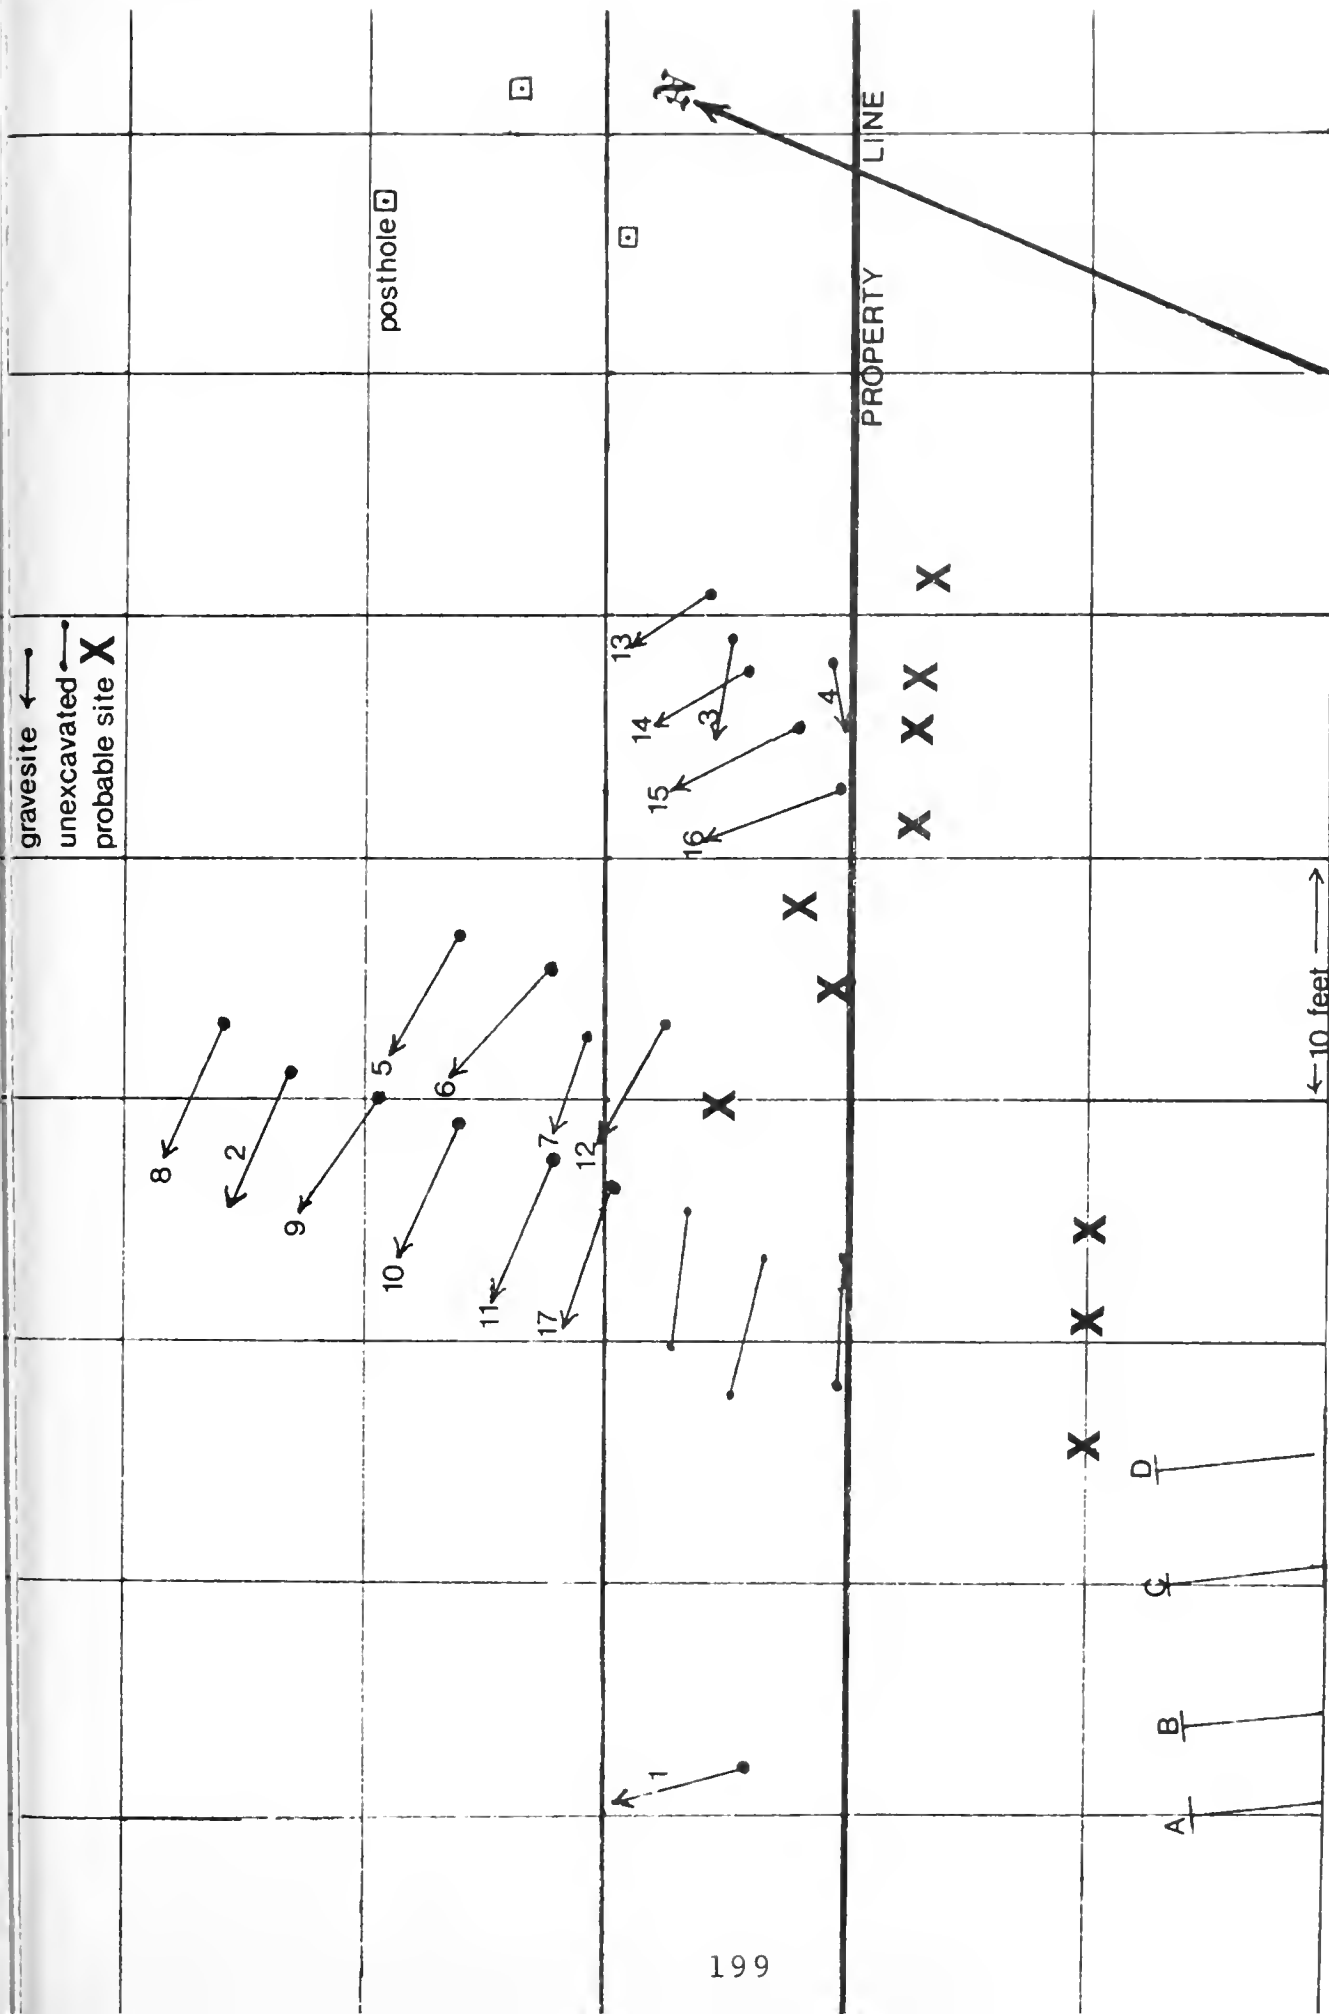

By 1686 the land had passed into the hands of Edward Atwood. It is said that he built the two story brick gambrel house some distance from the main house. Edward left the land to his two sons, Thomas and William, with the provision that if they should die without heirs, the land should go to their neighbor, Lemuel Cornick.

Lemuel Cornick acquired the land from the Atwoods circa. 1770. By 1773 the present Georgian structure had been completed. The name Broad Bay Manor appears for the first time in Lemuel's will.

Three generations of Cornicks, three generations of Ferebees, John B. Dey, and now Chester F. Ehrenzeller have been captivated by the charm of Broad Bay Farm. Mr. Ehrenzeller is an ardent amateur archeologist who has recovered many interesting artifacts from the grounds of this old plantation. It was he, while running the foundations for a wall, who discovered the old colonial graveyard where many of the former owners of Broad Bay Farm may rest.

 Coffin tacks spell out E.H. AE (age) 56. The unusual thing here is that the tacks seem to have preserved the wood in which they were imbedded as well as the fore-arm bones which lay just below them.
2. Seventeenth Century? orientation 270 degrees from N.
3. Nineteenth Century orientation 253 degrees from N.
 Child's burial. Porcelain buttons, pewter coffin handles, skull fragments and permanent teeth. Buried about 30 inches deep.
4. Nineteenth Century. orientation 236 degrees from N.
 Infant; only remains of cradle-like wooden coffin found.
5. Seventeenth Century? orientation 278 degrees from N.

4-Faced Monument

Side 1

In Memory of
DR. WALTER S. WAY
who died
January 12, 1872
after a service of nearly fifty years as a beloved and trusted Physician in this county

Side 2

Though faithful and
untiring as a physician
yet with a soul un---?
by the love of gain, he
neither sought nor reaped
the full reward of his service on earth

Side 3

In all the vicissitudes of fortune he was true to the people of this county,
appointed a justice of the peace in 1834, he served as such more than thirty years.

Side 4

Born in Maryland, he came to this county about 1822
and thereafter had a
quiet unostentatious life,
devoted to his profession
and his patients

ADDENDA

POPLAR HALL

Built by Thurmer Hoggard I in 1761. The graveyard consisted of three or four generations of Hoggards between 1761 and 1825. Although the graves have since been destroyed these graves are documented by Bible Records, Gravestones and Court Records. Aside from those recorded here there were nine unmarked graves.
